

Molly Checksfield
Grassroots Program Manager

Molly Checksfield became NARFE's Grassroots Program Manager in July 2016. Before working at NARFE, Checksfield earned a Master's in Public Administration from the Maxwell School of Citizenship & Public Affairs at Syracuse University and a Certificate of Advanced Study in Health Care Management and Policy.

Previously, Molly served as Legislative Director of Social Security Works, a non-profit that advocates expanding Social Security benefits across the board. Before Social Security Works, she worked for a Senator who sits on the Senate Committee on Aging. Molly earned a B.S. in Human Development and Family Studies and a minor in Public Communication from the University of Vermont.
